Married "Dancing With the Stars" personalities Edyta Sliwinska and Alec Mazo did their best to help locals with their moves on Friday night at the Arthur Murray and AdMeTech Foundation-sponsored Dance for the Cure of Prostate Cancer benefit. The dance party, which was held at the Boston Park Plaza Hotel & Towers, included a lesson with the two pros, who are known for partnering up on the show with the likes of George Hamilton, Joey Lawrence, Kelly Monaco, and Toni Braxton. The stars stuck around to perform at a Saturday night party at the Westin Copley that featured fashion shows by La Perla and local designer Michael De Paulo.
